

6516204966.txt

I am an ardent listener to XM Satellite radio and would not like to see the weater reports taken away from my radio. I live too far away from the Dallas area to get up to date information about the weather. Also, if I am taking a trip I would like to know how the weather is in the locations I plan on visiting. The Satellite radio is my only means of obtaining that information. Please do not let them take this away from the listeners.